

COMPOSER · PIANIST · MAINE, USA

Kiki Cubb

Cinematic piano compositions from the heart – inspiring, emotional, and born on a 100-year-old Steinway.

Kiki Cubb is an international composer who began piano studies in France at age nine. Now based in Maine, she composes on her 100-year-old Steinway, drawing inspiration from Rachmaninov, Hans Zimmer, Ludovico Einaudi, and Yiruma.

Since recording her first single “Hope” in 2019, Kiki has released 33 tracks, including her EP Chasing the Dream (2022) and her latest collaboration Snowy Day (2025), featured in the film Rekindled for Christmas. Radio stations worldwide play her music, and she now composes for film, TV, and media.

Listeners describe her heartfelt compositions as inspiring, emotional, and cinematic. When she's not composing, she enjoys time with her family, friends, and beloved dogs.

I sit at my piano and let my heart guide me. I believe that if you let your heart guide you as an artist, you cannot be wrong. I thank God for the continued inspiration, whatever it may be.

“

If the music I compose makes you feel, transports you somewhere, makes you dream, brings you peace or heals you... then I have accomplished what I am supposed to do as an artist and a composer. My dream is to get my compositions picked up for movies.
